

JAVELINA

FAIR ALL YOUTH

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JAVELINA'S ENERGETIC DEBUT EP COMING MAR.4:

"FAIR ALL YOUTH" release and tour details

LOS ANGELES— Jan. 6, 2020 — Fair All Youth, the debut EP from Los-Angeles based band Javelina, will be released on Mar. 4, 2020, on all digital platforms. It will feature 3 songs recorded in 2019 by producer and bassist for Tenacious D, John Spiker. "Here Again", the EP's single, will release on February 1, 2020 with 4 weeks of college radio airplay prior to the EP's full release.

"It's an aggressive record," says Jason Knight, singer-songwriter-guitarist for JAVELINA'S. "hopefully, people who haven't seen us live will get a feel of what the band is all about."

JAVELINA (have-ah-Lee-nah) is a Los Angeles-based desert grunge/ alternative rock band whose self-described dark slithering grooves, hypnotic primal riffs, driving drum beats, and introspective lyrics invoke names like Nirvana, the Pixies, Black Sabbath, The Beatles, and Kyuss. Emerging in 2018 and founded by front man Jason Knight and drummer Georgios Moustakas, and recently joining bassist Jeff Duck, the band is releasing their debut EP "Fair All Youth", available in Spring and followed by a west coast tour.

Fair All Youth is as much a loud, raucous invite to explore that side of yourself without rules as it is a screaming idealism on what it means to be true to who you really are. Human beings born to be free. As the listener bathes in elements of punk, psychedelia, 70's heavy metal, new wave, and alt-folk they are transported to an otherworldly scene somewhere between hell-raising harmonic revolution and a dark lullaby drenched in overdrive.

Jason, singer-songwriter for the band, packed a bag and left the glossy Insta-scene of the city and holed up in the desert among the coyotes, Joshua trees, cactus, and otherwise barren space to write. The raw, angst-filled combo of psychedelic desert wilds and self-reflection can be heard throughout "Fair All Youth".

The lyrics draw from the desert's geographical isolation as much as they do the front man's tendencies toward self-alienation and rebellion toward society at large. They also pull toward some dark side of self, a side that most don't explore.

The result is an otherworldly yet familiar pure honest rock and roll record, with stacked harmony, creative arrangement, and visceral imagery that William Burroughs himself would approve.

“FAIR ALL YOUTH” release and tour details Availability

“FAIR ALL YOUTH” release and tour details will be available for streaming and download on all digital platforms as well as www.javelinamusic.com on Mar. 4, 2020.

JAVELINA’S and “FAIR ALL YOUTH” release and tour details are either registered trademarks or trademarks of JAVELINA’S in the United States and/or other countries.

For more information, press only:

Jason Knight
503.200.4823
hello@javelinamusic.com

For more information on “FAIR ALL YOUTH” release and tour details:

www.javelinamusic.com
Instagram/ Facebook: @JavelinaOfficial
Youtube: Javelina Official